

I support New Jersey's "do-not-call" list policy of including business with which I have dealt with during the past 18 months. The Federal list should meet New Jersey's standard and not cave in to business interests. The FCC should protect personal rights. Thank you for the opportunity to comment.